TITLE: Cashier reports

DATES: 1981-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological.

DESCRIPTION:

These reports consist of register receipts rung up in the till of each cashier working at Alcoholic Beverage Control stores. They document every transaction made by a cashier. This is a condensed form of journal tapes for manager. If there is a problem with a cashier, this report becomes evidence in possible mismanagement of state funds. The cashier reports then become a part of the investigative file. INCLUDES daily voids, starting totals, ending totals, gross sells for machine, net sells for machine, and over and short for cashier.
