ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 2.00 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

These books are the official listing of registered voters in Cache County for the primary and general elections. There is a booklet for each election district in the county. Voters are required to register with the county clerk or local election registrars prior to election day (UCA 20-2). These registers contain a listing of persons who voted at least once in the previous two years or registered since 1974. These lists are used at the polls by election judges to identify registered voters and to record ballot numbers on election day. After the election they are used for comparison when canvassing the election and later to prepare new registers for the next election. They include: name of voter, ballot numbers (bond, special, primary, general); year last voted; city; and for some voters their address.
